6 Feast of St Maria Goretti

Oct 16 Official Transition Mass 8.30am with A'bp Mark and Carmelites presiding

Acknowledgement of Country:

We Acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of reconciliation.

PROCESSIONAL T WATTS & M O'BRIEN

A NEW HEART FOR A NEW WORLD

*Refrain: Create a new heart, holy Lord,
Beckon our lives through your word,
Open our eyes to your call, United as one for your world. Heighten our minds to your thoughts, Heal us of pride and of hurt, May we go forth in your name, We pray our hearts change.*

V1 The heart of the cross lowly and poor, calls us on.
Lord, it is you promising hope, promising truth. R/.

OFFERTORY C WALKER JESUS, YOU ARE BREAD FOR US

Refrain: Jesus, you are bread for us.

Jesus, you are life for us.

In your gift of Eucharist we find love.

V1 *When we feel we need a friend
you are there with us, Jesus.*

Thank you for the friend you are.

Thank you for the love we share. Refrain:

V2 *When we feel that we need love
you are there with us, Jesus.*

Thank you for the friend you are.

Thank you for the love we share. Refrain:

COMMUNION

REFLECTION

JOHN COLEMAN

INSTRUMENTAL

ALWAYS THERE

V1 You are there when we call on your name.

You are there, always the same.

You are there in the softness of the rain, always there.

You are there at the end of a life.

You are there to lead us to light.

You are there at the baby's first cry,
always there, always there.

V2 You are there like a mist on a hill.

You are there in the fac'tries and mills.

You are there for the beggar and the king, always there.

You are there in the forests and streets.

You are there in the faces we meet.

You are there in the hungry and weak,
always there, always there.

RECESSIONAL

STEPHEN ROBINSON

TASTE AND SEE

Refrain: Taste and see,

taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Taste and see,

taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

V1 I will bless the Lord, at all times,
His praise always on my lips.

In the Lord my soul shall make its boast.

The humble shall hear and be glad. Refrain

V4 Keep your tongue from speaking evil things

And let no lies be on your lips.

Turn aside from doing evil deeds.

Do good and seek after my peace. Refrain

Let's Celebrate our collective worth.

This Sunday, July 3, is the start of second assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia. Not all persons can be in the Council hall in Sydney, but all are part of journey; and it's vital that the Church surround the assembly with prayer. A'bp Mark asks us to find ways to foster a spirit of prayer entrusting the assembly to the Holy Spirit whose work the Council is. The Plenary Council is a gift of God to the Church in Australia at this complex and challenging time. Your prayer will be a gift to the assembly, ensuring that the entire Church in Australia is gathered spiritually if not physically in the Upper Room in Sydney.

www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/walkinginthspirit/ People across the country are invited to participate in a national prayer pilgrimage as the Catholic Church in Australia prepares for the Second Assembly of the 5th Plenary Council of Australia in Sydney from 3-9 July. We pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance and grace for Members who will gather and also for ourselves and the Church, that we may have the courage to follow where God is leading us.

The Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless & unite all your people in Australia & guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen. Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, pray for us.

Transition update 27 6 2022...

On Monday last Sr Kari, Fr Kevin Smith, Regina Caeli's interim administrator and the initial working group came together to further prepare our parish to go forward with our changing administratorship as of Sept 1.

Sr Kari reminded us of the weekend readings...'

it is more fruitful to look forward and not back so much, to grow and improve the harvest.'

We are working towards growing our vibrant community that provides for the needs of the community, encourages connectivity and pastoral outreach.

Pope Francis advocates all parishes need to be missionary in nature.

Brian Moffett has created a document to assist us navigate the road ahead and make good decisions going forward to grow the harvest.

Vital energy needs to be channelled into understanding our parish needs and our parishioner needs.

This can be better realised better with chatting informally to parishioners and asking them to share ideas.

Identifying all the groups and individuals and their needs within the parish is paramount. After identifying these needs smaller groups may be formed to maximise outcomes.

As is customary at this time of year in the lead up to the Feast of Saints Peter & Paul, a number of ordination anniversaries occur. We acknowledge all anniversaries & congratulate our most recent presbyteral ordination El Louie Jimenez, also on June 29, Feast of Sts Peter & Paul.

Congratulations ON YOUR ANNIVERSARY OF PRIESTHOOD

The Yagara and the Turrbal people consider themselves traditional custodians of the land over which much is Brisbane with Quandamooka people to the east ... An 'Acknowledgement of Country' is a way that all people can show awareness & respect for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander culture & heritage & the ongoing relationship Traditional Custodians have with their Country. It is a demonstration of respect dedicated to the Traditional Custodians. It is an opportunity to show the respect you have for the country, the waters & its people. Every year, on the 1st Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge & celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in Catholic Church. Following pandemic, the need to reconnect is vital. In 2022 NATSICC is asking all to come together & consider ways to support Australia's First Peoples - not just for this special day, but every day. This year the theme challenges us all to action.

The Harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few.

CLI is opportunity for clergy & laity to explore contemporary leadership practices during 10 weekly sessions, starting Mon July 11, 2022. Topics cover change management, managing conflict, team building in a church context & more. As we look to the future of the church, now, more than ever we need ordinary people ready to step into leadership with courage, readiness to learn, and, willingness to chart the course ahead. In 2021 two parishioners enrolled in CLI & found course valuable. Parish cover costs. Register now at https://

There's much discussion at the diocesan and national levels about mission renewal in keeping with what Pope Francis has said, "The joy of the church is to evangelise". In one way or another we're all involved in this mission, and as the pope has reminded us, 'mission has a centre and it has a face.' It's about Jesus, about others, as it is in today's gospel, when Jesus sends out seventy-two followers to the towns and places he is to visit. From the first, when the harvest is mentioned, there's an urgency about this sending out. The labourers are few so what should we do? He will send workers if we ask, but what if this means you and I will have to offer ourselves? As the gospel emphasizes, we'll only be able to do this if we depend on the Lord and each other, for Jesus encourages us to walk together, to be sustained by one another. As we go, we're left in no doubt about the challenges that await us, the lack of welcome, the opposition, but we're to stay focused on the job at hand and not be distracted by money, or possessions, or the exchange of pleasantries. As we enter each household the peace we offer isn't simply a polite greeting, but a gift of God. Convey something of this peace and don't expect any feel-good factor in return; and if you're not accepted don't start worrying, but stay open to it, let this peace sustain you. We're to have confidence that whatever we need will be provided. What else might we do? Offer some help, some healing, and know that 'the kingdom of God is very near to you' i.e., Jesus is alive, among us. Reach out to others and begin to discover this. And, if we're not welcome somewhere, draw attention to it by shaking the dust from our feet, or some other action, so we might all get a chance to re-consider. Once again, it's a reminder that for Jesus there is a sense of urgency in what he says: it's a moment of truth. When the seventy-two return full of joy at what has happened, Jesus reminds them that victory over Satan, our great accuser, will happen, and is already happening and they'll be alright, which is to say we will be alright, because the 'sending out of them' means we're all involved in this. And it's not a question of what we might be able to do so much as what God is able to do through us. The joy of the gospel is there in the psalm and the first reading from Isaiah, but now Jesus is alive, in our midst; and if he rises with the wounds on his body then it brings us to the cross, which is Paul's only boast in the second reading. In him is revealed God's love for us, which we're sent out to give away: it's our mission.

We Respond

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth;
our right hand is filled with saving justice.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 65)

RESPONSE: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

- Lector: Cry out with joy to God all the earth, O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: "How tremendous your deeds!" R.
- Lector: "Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!"
Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men. R.
- Lector: He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him; he rules for ever by his might. R.
- Lector: Come and hear, all who fear God. I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. R.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him
