ENTRANCE ANTIPHON (or a hymn) Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 122)

ANTIPHON: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

RESPONSE: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

LECTOR: To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords. R.

LECTOR: Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he show us his mercy. R.

LECTOR: Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me: he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON (or a hymn) Taste and see that the Lord is the good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Or

Come to me, all who labour and are burdened, and I will refresh you, says the Lord.

Seeing with the eyes of faith

4 July 2021 14th Sunday, Year B

If we hear something interesting about someone, we might be inclined to search for more information about that person. But Mark in today's gospel tells us about a contrasting attitude displayed by the people of Nazareth, Jesus' own kinfolk.

People in Jesus' hometown didn't want to learn more about him. They rejected him. They questioned his wisdom, power and authority. They saw Jesus as nothing special, an ordinary carpenter, a local man who lived a similar life to them.

These people were waiting eagerly for the Lord's coming. They were longing for God to come and free them. They wanted to be saved. They were sure they would recognise the Messiah when he came. They didn't recognise Jesus as the one for whom they waited. They couldn't see that He was the One. They were unbelieving and unwelcoming, rejecting God who had taken the form of the ordinary, one like them in human flesh. They were blind to the presence of God among them.

Jesus was amazed they lacked faith. His amazement tells us of the importance of having faith. Jesus invites us to welcome Him with faith because faith opens our eyes and enables us to see God. God is always among us and with us. Our discipleship journey requires faith. If we have faith, accepting and trusting Him totally, God's presence and what He is offering will bring new life and joy into our lives.

Every day God invites us to journey with Him. In faith, we can recognise that God is ever present in our lives and that He cares for us and wants us to have eternal life. His presence in our lives leads us to discover the gifts and talents each of us has, gifts and talents provided by God.

God participated in the very human experiences of being born, living, suffering, and eventually dying. In doing so, God made himself 'reachable' to humankind. Jesus was born in a stable, a simple place that could be accessed by rich and poor alike. He died on the cross so that sinners and holy people could witness and glorify him. In these ways, God shows us that He is with us whoever we are and wherever we might be.

Having faith, we sense God's presence close to us. It also enables us to see miracles in our everyday lives. Like the people in Jesus' hometown, these miracles will not occur if we are unaccepting. We need to open our hearts, place our trust in the Lord, and welcome Him into our lives.

May the Lord continue to give us His grace to have the 'eyes' of faith to see Him in every moment and at every turn in our life journey and to let Him strengthen us in our discipleship. As Saint Paul said, "For it is when I am weak that I am strong."

Parishioners... Pope Francis wrote that we are not so much in an era of change as in a change of era. People right throughout society are trying to understand & respond to what is happening. The Queensland Bishops are offering Catholic Leadership Intensive in parishes, a series of inputs on topics important for how we understand & live our faith personally & together, during these times. Please do not be scared off by the title. It is more about range of topics addressed throughout 10 weeks. These topics should help all in roles we already have in our lives. A range of presenters has been engaged to lead each of the topics. These topics should help us address the basic question for all leaders & Christians: How do I lead myself? Although The Course on site at Holy Spirit Seminary, is fully subscribed, it will be zoomed to locations on evenings from 12 July-12 Sept, 7-9 pm. Sessions at Banyo will be projected at the same time onto a large screen in our Hall. There will be time for input, reflection and sharing. We, at Regina Caeli would like as many as possible parishioners to participate. We are looking forward to Fr George Joseph joining us if possible. Regina Caeli will pay the cost of our enrolment. Please consider joining us in this course. The organizers are wanting to know by next Monday how many will be participating. I am sure they will be flexible for us. Please let us at the Parish Office know as soon as possible of your desire to be a part of the course and call us about any concerns or issues which are affecting our decision. Flyers in the foyer. Interested please contact office.

PROCESSIONAL T WATTS, M O'BRIEN

A NEW HEART FOR A NEW WORLD

R/- Create a new heart, Holy Lord.

Beckon our lives through your word.

Open our eyes to your call,

united as one for your world.

Heighten our minds to your thoughts.

Heal us of pride and of hurt.

May we go forth in your name.

We pray our hearts change.

V1 The heart of the cross lowly and poor, calls us on:

Lord, it is you promising hope, promising truth. R/-

OFFERTORY O ALSTOTT GATHER US TOGETHER

R/- Lord, Jesus Christ, gather us together.

Make us one bread, one body in your love.

V1 Gather your people, who long to be one,

One with you, O Lord, in truth and love. R/-

COMMUNION INSTRUMENTAL AMAZING GRACE

REFLECTION K BATES OUR SUPPER INVITATION

V1 Take of my bread and eat, drink my new wine.

Take of my life and live, branch of my vine.

Let me befriend you now; eat take your fill.

Don't be afraid to dream; love has its will.

V2 Take up your burden now, walk 'til you find

Just what the journey means;

walk while there's time.

Food for the journey will answer your need.

Don't be afraid to walk; love, my love will lead.

V3 Take of my bread and eat, drink my new wine.

Be a sweet nourishment to good friends of mine.

Let me befriend you now; eat, take your fill.

Share with your people, that love has its will.

RECESSIONAL R CONNOLLY

HOLY FATHER, GOD OF MIGHT

V1 Holy Father, God of might,

Throned amid the hosts of light,

Take our life, our strength, our love,

King of earth and heav'n above.

V2 Hear the songs your people raise,

Songs of joyful thanks and praise,

Calling all created things

To adore you, King of kings.

VAD it's in your hands...
