PROCESSIONAL J WISE SONG OF GATHERING

*Refrain: Neither Greek, nor Jew,
nor slave, nor free,
neither woman nor man,
but children are we,*

of the same God, the one Lord, the Father of all, let it be.

Final (The Mother of all, let it be).

V1 From the four winds, and the high seas,
From the lowlands, and the valleys

We come to the table; to the Saviour, to the call.

V3 From the one cup, from the one bread,
at the one meal we are all fed

once more in the body, in the Spirit, in the dream.

OFFERTORY J WISE TAKE OUR BREAD

*Refrain: Take our bread, we ask you.
Take our hearts, we love you.*

Take our lives, O Father, we are yours, we are yours.

V1 Yours as we stand at the table you set.

Yours as we eat the bread our hearts can't forget.

We are the sign of your life with us yet,

We are yours, we are yours. R/.

V2 Your holy people standing washed in your blood.

Spirit filled yet hungry, we await your food.

We are poor but we've brought ourselves

the best we could. We are yours, we are yours. R/.

Archbishop Mark has a message for you...

Recently we heard that B'p Ken Howell had been appointed Bishop of Toowoomba after 40 years as a priest & bishop in Brisbane. It will certainly be a change of scene for him as he heads out west. Toowoomba itself isn't far from the capital, but the diocese stretches way out to the state border. So Ken will have some very long drives, not to mention many flights in light aircraft. The diocese was cut off from Brisbane in 1929 when SW Q'ld was going through a boom – not just economically but also ecclesiastically as vocations to the priesthood & religious life boomed.

CORPUS CHRISTI
JUNE 11, 2023 ~ YEAR A

COMMUNION J FOLEY ONE BREAD, ONE BODY

*Refrain: One bread, one body, one Lord of all,
One cup of blessing which we bless.*

*And we, though many, throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.*

V2 Many the gifts, many the works

One in the Lord - of all. Refrain:

REFLECTION C WALKER BREAD FOR THE WORLD BROKEN

Refrain: Bread for the world broken;

wine for us all shed; word in flesh spoken;

God in love made manifest.

God in love made manifest.

V1 Love on the road that's lonely,

love in our minds as guide,

love speaking words of wisdom,

love walking by our side. R/.

V3 Love feeds our starving brother,

love heals our sister's pain,

love is a light in darkness, love soon will rise again. R/.

RECESSIONAL J Harrington, C Walker

TAKE THE WORD OF GOD WITH YOU

V1 Take the word of God with you as you go.

Take the seeds of God's word and make them grow.

Refrain: Go in peace to serve the world,

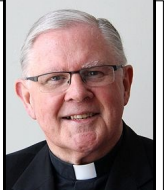

in peace to serve the world.

Take the love of God, the love of God with you as you go.

V2 Take the peace of God with you as you go

V3 Take the joy of God with you as you go

In the meantime, the economic & ecclesiastical landscape has changed, & SW Q'ld is facing the many pressures confronting rural Australia as a whole. Farming isn't what it was, & the young often leave for education & employment & never return. So Ken will have his challenges as the diocese adapts to changing facts on the ground. But one thing is certain: the faith that has always been Toowoomba's strength hasn't died. It may not be the potent Irish Catholicism of times past, but it still looks to Jesus in a way that can turn even the driest terrain into a garden.

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 11, over 4000 Catholics will make a public testimony of faith by walking in a Eucharistic procession through the streets of Brisbane city. It will be a colourful display as groups gather from all across the Archdiocese of Brisbane. The Procession will start and end at the Cathedral of St Stephen and feature prayers, rosary, hymns and Benediction, led by A'bp Mark Coleridge.

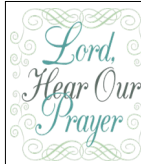

When: 2pm Sunday 11 June

Where: Cathedral of St Stephen, Brisbane City

The w/end will feature a Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition (10th -11th June: Cathedral precinct's Francis Rush Centre) and a vigil night of adoration (10th June from 7pm - 11th June 8am, in the Mary MacKillop Chapel).

Great learning. Great teaching. Great people.

Renovations are impending in the parish office, hence, the hall will become makeshift office.

We apologise to anyone inconvenienced. Hopefully, it won't be too long!

A message from Gerry Cummins and Jill Stehn...

We were commissioned to make a memorial window for Fr Pat McCormick MBE in 2004 for your Church. Our friend and colleague Dr Bronwyn Hughes, stained glass historian, has just written & published a book called, "Lights Everlasting Australia's Commemorative Stained Glass from the Boer War to Vietnam."

The window in your church features in her book and you may be interested. Copies of order form are available in foyer. Books are $69.95ea. Should you wish parish to order on your behalf, please place name, address & $69.95 in envelope at office in the coming weeks.

150th Anniversary of the Cathedral of St Stephen

The Archbishop has launched a year of celebration for the 150th anniversary of the Opening & Blessing of the Cathedral of St. Stephen. There will be a number of celebrations throughout next 12 months. This month of June we will be celebrating the story of Ordinations in Cathedral. Parishioners are invited to attend 10am Mass on Wednesday, June 28th, at Cathedral as we celebrate & acknowledge all those who have been ordained in the Cathedral throughout its history.

A'bp Mark Coleridge will preside & refreshments will be provided.

Come along & give thanks for the gift of service of the ordained ministers of our local church. Stay tuned for more commemorations over the course of this year-long celebration.

LIGHTS EVERLASTING
AUSTRALIA'S COMMEMORATIVE STAINED GLASS FROM THE BOER WAR TO VIETNAM
Bronwyn Hughes

Almost hidden within religious buildings, hospitals, school chapels and civic buildings, stained-glass windows tell of Australians at war.

Bronwyn Hughes focuses on commemorative stained glass—an overlooked art form—describing its rich artistic and architectural heritage and the artists and firms who created it. Memorial stained glass serves to depict and illuminate the men and women who fought and died for their faith and their country. It has a tragic beauty.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

CORPUS CHRISTI GOSPEL

John 6:51-58

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

He gave you food which you and your ancestors did not know.

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart - whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

'Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 147:12-15, 19-20

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Lector: O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates, he has blessed the children within you. R.

Lector: He established peace on your borders,

he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. R.

Lector: He makes his word known to Jacob,

to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations; he has not taught them his decrees. R.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Though we are many, we form a single body because we share this one loaf.

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Jesus said to the Jews:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another:

'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said.

Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly,

if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven;

not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
