3rd Sunday of Lent.

In the Gospel, it is not clear why Jesus is angry with the money changers and others.

Perhaps they are cheating people by raising the prices on the animals and charging high exchange fees to those needing the appropriate coins for the Temple tax. Whatever the reason, Jesus believes these individuals collectively represent a great source of injustice. Jesus refuses to passively stand by and do nothing in the presence of such injustice, so he chooses a course of action that clearly speaks out against the injustice.

What injustices remain today that we can raise our voices against to get addressed and corrected?

3rd Sun of Lent
2 & 3 March

Samoa may be a country surrounded by water, but access to clean drinking water is scarce in some areas, with many families facing extreme hardship as a result. Leaia lives with her five children, husband, brother & sister-in-law on the island of Upolu in Samoa. Not having access to a reliable source of clean water caused Leaia a lot of worry. Their home is not connected to a piped water system, so they had to rely solely on rainwater collected in old fridges. When their water ran out, Leaia had to walk with her young children to collect water in buckets & containers from a neighbour down the street. With support of Caritas Australia's local partner, Caritas Samoa, a water tank was installed at Leaia's home. She and her family now have a steady supply of clean drinking water at home. Next year, they will also have a toilet built, with the support of Caritas Samoa, which will further improve their health and living conditions. Leaia said, "We are very thankful and grateful for the water tank. It has helped us so much and made our daily life easier," Please donate to Project Compassion.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow...

for all future generations.
