Archbishop Mark has a message for you...

It seems only a few weeks since the Christmas holidays & here we are at Easter. It's an early Easter – our earliest in almost a decade – and it offers a chance to reflect and reset in our busy lives. When we strip back the Easter story, it's about a new vision of what's possible, which really means it's about hope. Death becomes life. Defeat becomes victory. Love, not evil, has the last word. That's true hope. Well done to our students on reaching the end of this first term. And thanks to our staff for all that they do to help our young people learn and grow. Happy Easter ...and enjoy school holidays.

PROJECT COMPASSION

FOR ALL FUTURE GENERATIONS
